

Dear People,

I find the consolodation of the public media frightening for our democracy. A strong democratic society depends on a wide diversity of views. It's getting increasingly difficult to find anything but one or two veiwpoints -- due to the consolodation of media.

Please, do not permit even greater consolodation. Please oppose corporate media to own more than one outlet in a "market."

Thank you,
Erik Hoffman